SWOA Fixtures system survey

Part 1 discussion; Level C and D events

The SWOA Fixtures Survey report was issued to clubs in August 2017. At the SWOA committee meeting 4 October 2017 Richard Sansbury said he wished to discuss the SWOA Fixtures Survey report in three parts. Part 1 (Level C and D events) would be discussed at this meeting. The following points were raised:

1. Level D (local events).

There is no restriction on what clubs can do. Clubs do not wish to clash with neighbours and scheduling conflict may not be important as Level D are essentially for own club members.

It was agreed that SWOA should continue not to be involved in Level D event scheduling.

2. Level C (regional events)

The SWOA Level C scheduling policies are repeated here for clarity. See page 6 of the Survey report. Most clubs supported the current SWOA Level C scheduling policies.

Notes: Level C events include the Galoppen series, but some clubs are selecting level C status for their regular club series. Level C events are agreed on a regional basis, and the SWOA committee has policies outline below about them. Apart from these policies there is no limit on the number of events. The Galoppen series is agreed approx 12 months in advance, once level B dates are settled.

SWOA intends that Galoppen events have precedence over other events in the region. For that reason SWOA does not allow another level C event in the region to be held on the same day as a Galoppen, unless they obtain the agreement of the Galoppen club first. Level D events will be permitted.

The Galoppen series will be spread across the season, and with no more than 2 events in any 4 week period.

All requests for level C will be granted unless there is a clash with a Galoppen or level A or B event in SWOA or a neighbouring region.

For level C events, the task of assessing terrain suitability and the competence of the officials are delegated to the organising club and to the Controller.

Problems in Level C scheduling include:

- a. Clashes with adjoining regions
- b. Lack of interclub discussion.
- c. Shortage of suitable areas.
- d. Perception that some Level C events are run at too high a standard.
- e. More Level Cs are encouraged but this can lead to more clashes.

Possible solutions suggested at the meeting:

- a. Use of part only of a suitable area.
- b. Use of Saturdays as well as Sundays.
- c. More interclub discussion. All club fixture secretaries have the contact details of each other.
- d. There is no specific criteria for a level C event so could clubs be less choosy about suitable areas.

It was agreed that SWOA should keep the current Level C event policies (shown in blue above).

South West Junior Orienteering Squad ( SWJOS) Report

The squad finished an excellent 4th at the Junior Inter Regionals, just 11 points behind Yorkshire and 20 behind the North West. The boys finished runners up in the relay competition overall (best two SW teams to count) and our first team of Eddie Narbett, Flurry Grierson and Jim Bailey won the race by an impressive 4.5 minutes. On the individual day, Oliver Tonge (M14), Flurry Grierson (M16) and Eddie Narbett (M18) all finished in third place.

We have a rough outline for our training this season but with Pete Maliphant being currently unable to help this hasn't been progressed as quickly as I would have liked. Suffice to say if I can find some accommodation in Devon we intend to train on Dartmoor on the Monday and Tuesday after the Compass Sport Final (Sunday 22 October )

I've bought 50 tops to sell to the juniors mainly with the funds that SWOA kindly gave to us last year. I don't think we'll be asking for a donation of the same size this year but something in the order of £750 to £1,000 would be good.

From the point of view of extra help I'd certainly welcome some administrative support while Pete is absent. If anyone is willing to help perhaps you could point them in my direction. The admin support that is needed basically involves booking accommodation, getting permissions, arranging parent helpers, cooks etc, sending out details to those who have registered an interest and collecting the contributions made by the juniors.

Report on Lagganlia junior orienteering training camp

This summer I was delighted to be chosen to attend the Lagganlia junior orienteering training camp in Scotland. It was a great week of technical orienteering on some of the most difficult areas in Scotland. 26 athletes were chosen to attend and it was great to get to know many other orienteers from my age class. I flew up to Lagganlia early in the morning – having to be at the airport by 4:30am. This got Jim and I to Lagganlia about 8 hours before everyone else which gave us time to explore the woods and find the Wi-Fi. The activity site we were staying at was also being used by the BBC for the filming of the children's TV show Raven and on the last day we were shown around the set for one of the challenges. That first evening we got to know everyone and were split up into our training groups (of 4 people) which we worked with throughout the week. Each training group had a coach and a junior coach and I was lucky enough to have Matt Fellbaum in my group who had recently come back from JWOC.

The areas we trained in varied from forest to open but they all had technical contour detail, no paths and not nearly as runnable as the Forest of Dean, as usually the forest floor was covered with heather or numerous fallen trees. The aim of all the training exercises were to improve our route choices and accuracy of our legs by using simplification – and the Scottish terrain was perfect for this.

On Sunday – the first day of training – we practised pace counting and compass bearings which was a challenge on the ups and downs of the Scottish terrain. That evening we drew sketch maps of North Granish, to be used in Mondays exercise, before we all watched the Love Island final. We tried to draw our sketch maps with as little detail as possible needed to navigate to the next control – however I still drew on too much detail on mine which confused me when I ran the course on Monday. I then went out again on my coach's sketch map and he had drawn only about two features on per control; surprisingly I found that easier to navigate by than my own sketch map. Also that day we went to Loch Vaa which although it was covered with heather and loads of ant hills and not very runnable, it was one of my favourite areas.

On our 'rest' day on Wednesday we did two sprint events which was a nice fast change from the forest. The first course was held around Badaguish on a high scale of 1:1500 which made the event even more complicated. Afterwards we went on these challenging rings over the stream which was very cold when we fell in! We then did a sprint final in the afternoon at Glenmore Lodge which again was on the same scale. I had a great fast start and was leading the course until the third last control where I decided to run north and west off the map at the same time losing three minutes. To finish the day we went swimming in a cold loch and then went to Tesco in Aviemore where we stocked up on snacks ready to watch Beauty and the Beast in the evening.

Throughout the week we did many competitive races and relays to test out skills. One relay we did was a fast paced peg relay around Roseisle where you got bonus points for collecting pegs which were spread out around the controls for the first runners who got there – however you then had to do an extra loop if you managed to get one. My favourite race was a technical forest ‘sprint’ in light green woods in Culbin. This really tested our ability to navigate at a high speed.

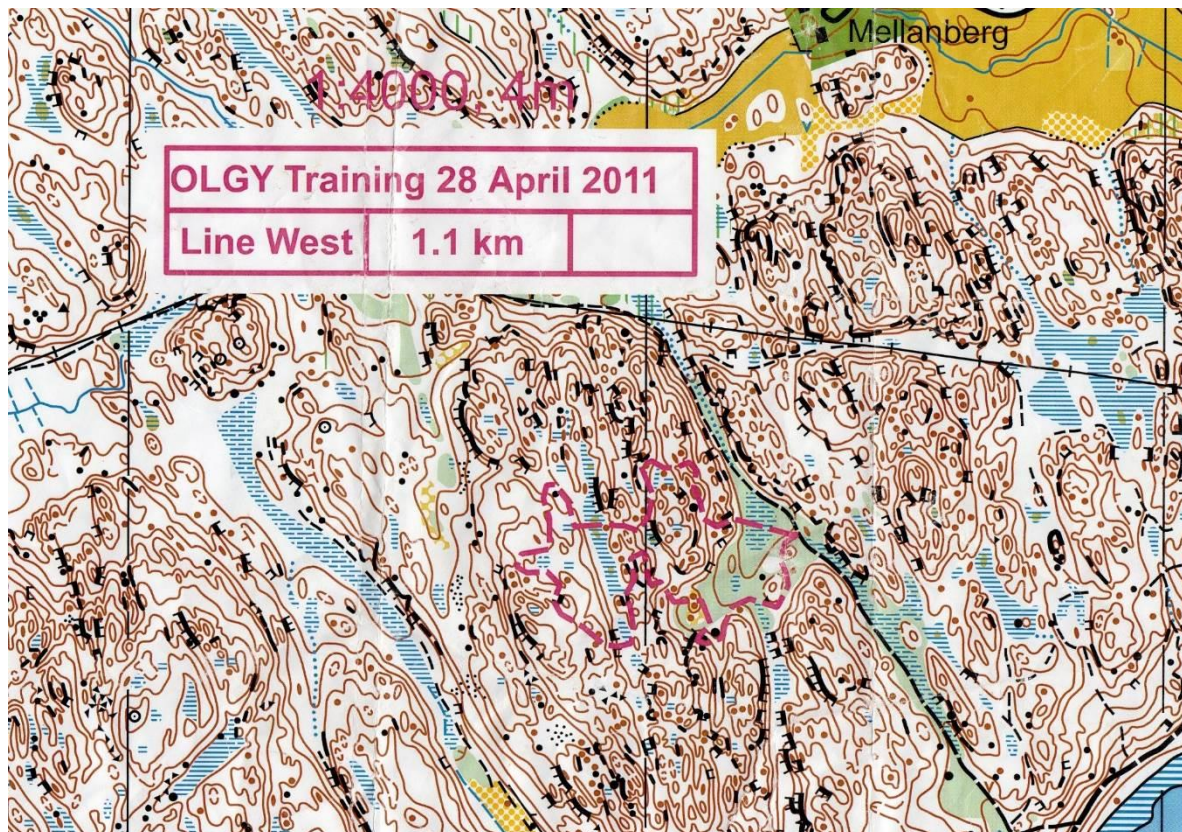

On the final day of orienteering we did a challenging classic event around Inshriach, which after a week of orienteering, was very tiring running over the heather. I was really pleased with my run and although I wasn’t so fast, I was very accurate in all the intricate contour detail which paid off as everyone else made mistakes and I managed to become the Lagganlia Tour champion. On the last night, as is tradition, we all ran away and hid in the Lagganlia woods. We all tried to meet up and packed a rucksack full of food to snack on whilst the junior coaches tried to find us. It was a great way to end a great week.

I would like to thank Tony & Wendy Carlyle and Nev Myers for organising and planning the whole week and also to all the other coaches who made the week happen. I would also like to thank BOK and SWOA for contributing to the trip.

Stockholm Tour 2017

After thoroughly enjoying the Scottish 6 Days I had only two days of rest before flying out to Stockholm with a group of friends. After struggling with heavy bags on public transport we finally made it to the OK Ravinen hut which would be our home for the next two weeks. The first day of training we got really thrown into the Swedish terrain, and having never run in Scandinavia I didn't really know what to expect – I was lost by number 1!! I couldn't work out why there were so many rocks and crags that just weren't on the map! Luckily one of the coaches helped me round the course and by the end I was feeling a lot more confident and was able to work out what was actually mapped. Above is one of the training maps from the first day. This is at 1:4000 and already this looks very complicated. To me there seemed to be loads of extra crags but only the crags that are actually vertical and over 1m high were mapped. The marshes were good to navigate by as they were quite obvious but you had to make sure you knew where you were at all times as it was easy to make the land around you fit the map when you could be somewhere else.

Over the course of the tour we ran many different types of training exercises. These included doing gaffled courses with a partner for relay training, corridor exercises that were really useful for compass work and fine, detailed navigation in the Scandinavian terrain. We also did a micro sprint, in the forest next to the OK Ravinen hut, where we were given a map with just contours on and joined in with the OK Ravinen club training where we had to do a clock relay. This was very difficult as finding the controls in Swedish terrain was hard enough, let alone actually having to hang them ourselves!

We did a few races whilst out there, running for OK Ravinen. The first of the big races was a four leg relay for two people. This meant we all had to run twice. This proved to be challenging after running full out to stay with the pack on the first leg, I then had to find some more energy to run the next leg. After a close race Ellie Bales and I came third which was really unexpected so a very nice surprise. On the final weekend we ran in a long and middle event. The Saturday was the long distance race and we were very lucky that the heavy rain just stopped before we headed out. I had an alright run taking it slowly, because we were using a 1:15000 map, but just trying to be accurate, and this seemed to work well for me as I came in sixth. The final day was the middle distance and although I didn't do particularly well, it was good fun and the area was really technical which tested all the skills we had learnt over the week.

However, it wasn't all orienteering as we fitted in some weight training, where we were taught by the Swedish Paralympic coach, an OK Ravinen strength and conditioning session, a 3km time trail and a hash. These were all excellent fun and many of them a new experience for us. During our free time we enjoyed swimming in the lake just across the road from the hut and then coming back to warm up in the sauna. We were also lucky enough to go to Grona Lund, the theme park in Stockholm, which was great 'adrenaline training' in Nick's words, but only a few were brave enough to go on all the drop rides!

I really enjoyed the whole trip and I think it will really benefit my orienteering. I would like to thank Nick Barrable and all the other coaches for their enthusiasm and help on the tour. Also thank you very much to BOK and SWOA for their contributions to the trip.

RECORDER OF CONTROLLERS' REPORT

- 1 Application for appointment:
Tom Lillicrap, DEVON, has applied to be appointed to Grade C. He fulfills the necessary requirements so his application can be approved by the committee.
- 2 New Grade C Controller:
Karen French, WIM, was appointed as controller for the Level C Poole Town Race on 18th June by the organiser, Julie Astin. However Karen had failed to apply for approval as a controller by SWOA and therefore did not have a Grade C licence – although she had fulfilled the necessary conditions. Before the event she made a formal application, which was approved by the SWOA committee using email.
- 3 Training courses:
A Grade B course at Montacute House, near Yeovil, with me as the tutor, has been proposed. The date is still uncertain as it depends upon the availability of the facilities provided by the National Trust, and the availability of those who have declared an interest in attending. If the course takes place it will be on the 4th or 11th November.
SCOA [Katy Stubbs] will be running a Grade B course early next year, and Katy will be tutor for a Grade A course at the Major Events Conference on November 18th.
